THE KENTUCKY COUNCIL OF NATIONALLY ACCREDITED
FLOWER SHOW JUDGES PRESENTS

Designing with Chase Mosko

Saturday, June 16, 2018

11:00 – 1:00 EDT

Historic Boone Tavern, Berea Kentucky

Chase Mosko

Recently he traveled abroad to Hong Kong designing showrooms and products for various department stores and companies. In 2018, Chase also received his Mastery of Design, making him a Kentucky Master Florist.

With over 10 years of experience, Chase makes it vital that quality is at the foreground- ensuring his company motto, "Luxury and taste never go out of style."

Join Chase for a glamorous, exciting, fun filled morning of conversation, design tip, lunch and workshop in the historic Boone Tavern, Saturday, June 16, 2018, from 11:00 – 1:00 EDT..

Take home a beautiful dish garden that is a reflection of Chases' unique style and your talents. Beginner to experienced floral designers will enjoy his infectious personality and "It's ok, don't sweat it." attitude.

The workshop includes lunch, dish garden, supplies and the opportunity to enjoy the humor and creativity of one of Kentucky's finest young designers.

Following the workshop, please visit

At the early age of 16, Chase Mosko, began designing gowns. With his passion for design, he looked for opportunities to expand his knowledge within the industry. While attending the University of the Cumberlands, he majored in Fine Arts and Design with a minor in Classical Opera. He launched his design company, Chase Mosko Designs as a young entrepreneur at the age of 22. His company is known for memorable affairs with keen attention to detail. They exceed the expectation of their clients with their unique and creative vision. Chase takes pride in being the ultimate "one-stop" planning resource from beginning to end. He treats his clients like family and has the reputation of perfection for all events, whether simple or lavish.

In 2015 he was voted Best Floral Designer by Best of the Best in his hometown. Later that year, he competed in Designer of the Year for the state of Kentucky, placing 2nd runner-up. At the age of 26, Chase was selected to represent a region of the state as a member of the Kentucky Florist Association; currently making him the youngest member serving on the Board of Directors.
